

Q. What is the current enrollment by grade level in our elementary schools?

A. This data is taken from Power School (our student data information system) and reflects grade-level enrollment as of May 23, 2011. The number at River Mill reflects 15 students in a self-contained special education program. The number at Clackamas River reflects 13 students in a self-contained special education program. Both programs mainstream students into the regular classrooms for some or all of the day, therefore those numbers remain in the totals.
